

Welcome to St. John's Cathedral

“Rejoice with me,
for I have found my sheep that was lost.”
- Luke 15:6b

September 11, 2016 - 9 a.m.
The Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost

LOVE at the CORE.

Welcome to St. John's Cathedral! We are so glad that you are here.

We worship God in the heart of the city. We are surrounded by the poor in an area of town that is often neglected. In his life, Jesus often ministered to the poor and needy, and we believe that by worshipping God in the urban core, we can catch a glimpse of God's love.

We welcome all people. Our nursery is open all morning on Sundays. We would love to get to know you better, and you can help us by filling out a visitor card located in your pew and placing it in the offering plate as it comes by, or by handing it to an usher. Please let us know if you need prayers and if you would like us to email you our online newsletter. Listening devices are always available for the hearing impaired and large-print bulletins for those who have trouble with their eyesight. Please ask an usher if you need these items or anything else. We want to help you feel at home here.

We believe that worship should be beautiful and sacred, a moment to hush the hurriedness of our lives and experience the peace of God. I hope that you feel God's love this morning.

Faithfully,

The Very Reverend Kate Moorehead,
Dean

REMEMBERING SEPTEMBER 11TH WITH MUSIC

Today at 6 p.m., St. John's Cathedral will host a free Peace Concert to commemorate this historic date and to reaffirm the hope for world peace. A reception will follow in Taliaferro Hall. This event is co-sponsored by the Jacksonville Sister Cities Association and the University of North Florida. The Jacksonville Sister Cities Association is a nonprofit organization staffed entirely by volunteers. The mission of the Association is to foster and encourage mutual understanding, friendship and peace through cultural, economic, educational and professional exchanges.

Please make plans to attend as we come together with cities around the world to celebrate life and universal humanity. Performing ensembles will include choirs from the University of North Florida, the Douglas Anderson School of the Arts, and the Jacksonville Children's Chorus. Also featured will be the world premier of "On Peace" for soprano, trumpet and organ, by local composer Tony Steve. The piece will feature Paula Merritt, soprano, and Cliff Newton, trumpet. This composition, commissioned especially for this concert, draws on text from the twelfth-century abbess and mystic Hildegard von Bingen.

MEET OUR NEW SENIOR CHORISTER DIRECTOR

Paula Merritt, soprano, is a Voice Instructor at Edward Waters College in Jacksonville, Florida. She teaches applied voice and Diction for Singers, Class Voice and an Opera Workshop. Ms. Merritt began her undergraduate studies at the University of North Florida. She earned her Bachelor of Music in Voice Performance from UNF, where she studied with Dr. William Brown. She went on to earn a Master of Music in Vocal Performance from Oklahoma City University, under the tutelage of Vicki Kelly. As a student of the University of Miami she trained with Dr. Esther Jane Hardenbergh and toured Austria with the U.M. Frost School of Music at Salzburg program. Ms. Merritt has done additional vocal study with the Palm Beach Opera Resident Artist Program under Kamal Khan and conductors Julius Rudel and Bruno Aprea.

As a singer, Ms. Merritt has performed in many operas including: Les contes d'Hoffman, Dialogues des Carmélites, Madame Butterfly, Tosca, Le nozze di Figaro, Carmen, Manon Lescaut, Faust, Aida, Lucia di Lammermoor, La traviata, Naughty Marietta, and Don Giovanni. In addition, she has performed at Claflin University and presented at the MTNA conference at Oberlin Conservatory. She performed as a soloist at First Church of Christ Scientists in Coral Gables for three years. Ms. Merritt taught elementary school music in Miami, Florida and is the new Director of the Senior Choristers at St. John's Cathedral, Jacksonville. She also has performed major choral works with the Jacksonville Symphony Chorus. There will be a voice recital featuring Ms. Merritt at the cathedral next Sunday, September 18, at 3 p.m. in Taliaferro Hall.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Welcome

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Celebrant Blessed be our God.
People Forever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant and People

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Children age four through fifth grade follow the Cross in procession to Children's Chapel in Cummings Chapel. The children rejoin their families at the Peace.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant continues

O God, because without you we are not able to please you, mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Jeremiah 4:11-12, 22-28

Lector A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: A hot wind comes from me out of the bare heights in the desert toward my poor people, not to winnow or cleanse-- a wind too strong for that. Now it is I who speak in judgment against them. "For my people are foolish, they do not know me; they are stupid children, they have no understanding. They are skilled in doing evil, but do not know how to do good." I looked on the earth, and lo, it was waste and void; and to the heavens, and they had no light. I looked on the mountains, and lo, they were quaking, and all the hills moved to and fro. I looked, and lo, there was no one at all, and all the birds of the air had fled. I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert, and all its cities were laid in ruins before the Lord, before his fierce anger. For thus says the Lord: The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. Because of this the earth shall mourn, and the heavens above grow black; for I have spoken, I have purposed; I have not relented nor will I turn back.

The Gospel

Luke 15:1-10

Gospeler
People

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

All the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them." So he told them this parable: "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.' Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

The Prayers of the People

All remain standing as able.

Let us pray for the needs of the world.

For peace and justice on the earth, for the leaders of all nations, that they may grow in wisdom and compassion, and for understanding among all races and peoples.

Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For the people of this nation as we approach the election of a new president. Guide and strengthen this country in its discernment.

Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For those who are ill, lonely, or suffering in any way.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For those who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For the forgiveness of our sins, all that we have done wrong, and all that we have left undone.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

God of all races and nations, we cannot change the past, but you can change our hearts. We seek your grace to strengthen us as we commemorate the lives of those lost on this day. Be close to those who grieve today, Loving God, and teach us all to love each other as you love all of us.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Representatives of the congregation bring forward the People's offerings of money, and other gifts.

Offertory Anthem A mighty Fortress is our God Arr. Roger Price

A mighty Fortress is our God, a Bulwark never failing; our Helper He amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing. But still our ancient foe doth seek to work us woe; his craft and pow'r are great; and, armed with cruel hate, on earth is not his equal.

That Word above all earthly powers, no thanks to them, abideth; the Spirit and the gifts are ours through Him who with us sideth; let goods and kindred go, this mortal life also; the body they may kill: God's truth abideth still, His kingdom is forever.

Celebrant
People

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

Father, Lord of all creation, we praise you for your goodness and your love. When we turned away you did not reject us. You came to meet us in your Son, welcomed us as your children and prepared a table where we might feast with you.

In Christ you shared our life that we might live in him and he in us.

He opened wide his arms upon the cross and, with love stronger than death, he made the perfect sacrifice for sin.

Lord Jesus Christ, our redeemer, on the night before you died you came to table with your friends. Taking bread, you gave thanks, broke it and gave it to them saying, Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.

Lord Jesus, we bless you: you are the bread of life.

At the end of supper you took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins; do this in remembrance of me.

Lord Jesus, we bless you: you are the true vine.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death, rising, you restored our life; Lord Jesus, come in glory.

Holy Spirit, giver of life, come upon us now; may this bread and wine be to us the body and blood of our Savior Jesus Christ.

As we eat and drink these holy gifts make us, who know our need of grace, one in Christ, our risen Lord.

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Blessed Trinity: with your whole Church throughout the world we offer you this sacrifice of thanks and praise and lift our voice to join the song of heaven, for ever praising you and singing:

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant The bread which we break is a sharing in the body of Christ.

People We being many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

The Celebrant continues

Draw near with faith. Receive the body of our Lord Jesus Christ which he gave for you, and his blood which he shed for you. Remember that he died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

Please join us at God's table.

All baptized people are welcome to receive communion. Everyone is welcome to come to the altar for a blessing. If you would like a blessing, please fold your arms across your chest. You are also invited to receive prayers and anointing with holy oil in one of our transept chapels (Ascension to the south, and Holy Communion to the north) where anointers wait to pray with you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND UPCOMING EVENTS

► Foyer Groups Forming for the Coming Year

Foyer groups are small dinner groups, and a great way to meet and make new friends from the cathedral. These are groups of eight-plus people: you meet as often or as occasionally as you want. Your group picks the menu and the venue – it can be a sit-down dinner, or dinner out, or pot-luck – it can be whatever you want! Look for the information table outside the side entrance doors to the cathedral after services in the coming weeks - or mark your calendar and plan to attend our organizational wine and cheese event on Saturday, September 24 at 6 p.m. The more, the merrier! Questions? Contact blhardman@yahoo.com.

► Coming soon: Discovery

The cathedral's in-house retreat, Discovery Weekend, has been updated and re-formatted this year into an 8-week series of dinners and discussions that will take place in Taliaferro Hall on Wednesday evenings from 6 to 8 p.m., beginning September 28 and running through November 16. Discovery is offered at no cost, and includes dinner and child care. If you are looking to engage further with your St. John's Cathedral family and the ministries that we share, join us for this excellent series. We're excited, and hope you are too! Registrations are required. To register, or for more information, see the table between the entrances to the cathedral and Taliaferro Hall. You may also contact Kym Johnson at kjohnson@jaxcathedral.org.
