

Welcome to St. John's Cathedral

“You are my refuge and my stronghold...”

- Psalm 91:2a

September 25, 2016 - 11 a.m.
The Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

LOVE at the CORE.

Welcome to St. John's Cathedral! We are so glad that you are here.

We worship God in the heart of the city. We are surrounded by the poor in an area of town that is often neglected. In his life, Jesus often ministered to the poor and needy, and we believe that by worshipping God in the urban core, we can catch a glimpse of God's love.

We welcome all people. Our nursery is open all morning on Sundays. We would love to get to know you better, and you can help us by filling out a visitor card located in your pew and placing it in the offering plate as it comes by, or by handing it to an usher. Please let us know if you need prayers and if you would like us to email you our online newsletter. Listening devices are always available for the hearing impaired and large-print bulletins for those who have trouble with their eyesight. Please ask an usher if you need these items or anything else. We want to help you feel at home here.

We believe that worship should be beautiful and sacred, a moment to hush the hurriedness of our lives and experience the peace of God. I hope that you feel God's love this morning.

Faithfully,

The Very Reverend Kate Moorehead,
Dean

DISCOVERY: LIVING IN COMMUNITY

Please join us at Discovery! This eight-week series is a time for parishioners and potential parishioners to discover ways to connect with new and old friends, connect with God and connect with the St. John's Cathedral community. With dinner, talks, creative activities and small group discussions, you will deepen your relationship with Christ and learn new ways that you can serve in our parish and our local community.

Please note that, while the Discovery series is in session beginning this Wednesday, September 28 and through November 16, there will be two separate dinners offered on Wednesday evenings at the cathedral. For anyone not participating in Discovery, dinner will be served at 5 p.m. as usual. For those who are participating in Discovery, the group will meet together to have dinner at 6 p.m. The Discovery series will be held in Taliaferro Hall. Each evening of Discovery will begin at 5:45 p.m. with a time to meet and greet each other, then dinner is served promptly at 6 p.m. Each Discovery session will conclude by 8 p.m. Child care will be available, so don't let the kids keep you away!

We know that life happens and everyone will not be able to make every week's session. The Discovery series will be open for new attendees through the third week of the sessions, so please make sure you are registered to be a part of Discovery no later than Wednesday, October 12! We will not be able to add new people to the group after this point. To register, or for more information, see the table between the entrances to the cathedral and Taliaferro Hall this Sunday. You may also contact Bonnie Hardman at blhardman@yahoo.com.

God is calling us at St. John's Cathedral to be a community that loves God, loves each other and loves our neighbors. This Wednesday series promises to be a time to open our hearts and minds to God's plan for us.

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS NEXT SUNDAY

The cathedral celebrates St. Francis' Day on the first Sunday of October with an annual blessing of the animals during the 9 a.m. service only. Join us next Sunday, October 2 for this fun, special service! The service will be held outside in the Cathedral Park, weather permitting. Bring your dogs, cats, birds, lizards and all other critters that are a part of your family! There will be no Christian Formation classes for children, youth or adults next Sunday so that everyone who wants to can bring their pets and fully participate in this service.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Celebrant Blessed be our God.
People Forever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant and People

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant continues

O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Jeremiah 32:1-3a, 6-15

Lector A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord in the tenth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar. At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and the prophet Jeremiah was confined in the court of the guard that was in the palace of the king of Judah, where King Zedekiah of Judah had confined him. Jeremiah said, The word of the Lord came to me: Hanamel son of your uncle Shallum is going to come to you and say, "Buy my field that is at Anathoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours." Then my cousin Hanamel came to me in the court of the guard, in accordance with the word of the Lord, and said to me, "Buy my field that is at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession and redemption is yours; buy it for yourself." Then I knew that this was the word of the Lord. And I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver. I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on scales. Then I took the sealed deed of purchase, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy; and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Judeans who were sitting in the court of the guard. In their presence I charged Baruch, saying, Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, both this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware jar, in order that they may last for a long time. For thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

A period of silence for reflection follows the reading.

The Psalm is read in unison.

Psalm 91:1-6, 14-16

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, *
abides under the shadow of the Almighty.

He shall say to the Lord, "You are my refuge and my stronghold, *
my God in whom I put my trust."

He shall deliver you from the snare of the hunter *
and from the deadly pestilence.

He shall cover you with his pinions, and you shall find refuge under his wings; *
his faithfulness shall be a shield and buckler.

You shall not be afraid of any terror by night, *
nor of the arrow that flies by day;

Of the plague that stalks in the darkness, *
nor of the sickness that lays waste at mid-day.

Because he is bound to me in love, therefore will I deliver him; *
I will protect him, because he knows my Name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; *
I am with him in trouble; I will rescue him and bring him to honor.

With long life will I satisfy him, *
and show him my salvation.

A Repeating Alleluia

Calvin Hampton

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.' But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.' He said, 'Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father's house-- for I have five brothers-- that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.' Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.' He said, 'No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"

The Prayers of the People

All remain standing as able.

Let us pray for the needs of the world.

For peace and justice on the earth, for the leaders of all nations, that they may grow in wisdom and compassion, and for understanding among all races and peoples.

Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For the people of this nation as we approach the election of a new president. Guide and strengthen this country in its discernment.

Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For those who are ill, lonely, or suffering in any way.

Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For those who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Ubi caritas

Ola Gjeilo

*Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.
Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.
Exultemus, et in ipso iucundemur.
Timeamus, et amemus Deum vivum.
Et ex corde diligamus nos sincero.*

Where charity and love are, God is there.
Christ's love has gathered us into one.
Let us rejoice and be pleased in Him.
Let us fear, and let us love the living God.
And may we love each other with a sincere heart.

As the Altar is prepared for Communion, representatives of the congregation collect the offerings of the People. The people stand when the offerings are brought forward and placed on the Altar.

► Civil Discourse: Practicing God's Grace in Community

Tuesday, Oct. 25, 5:30 p.m. in Ingram Lounge

All are invited to participate in this fourth Cathedral Civil Discourse forum. The subject is Climate Choices: How Should We Meet the Challenges of a Warming Planet? "Climate disruptions have some people worried about their health, their children, their homes, their livelihoods, their communities, and even their personal safety. They wonder about the future of the natural areas they enjoy and the wild animals and plants that live there. In addition, there are growing concerns about our national security and how climate change might affect scarce resources around the planet and increase global tensions." Climate Choices

The ramifications for climate change in Florida raise particular concerns. Despite differences of opinion, bipartisan efforts by Florida mayors and the particular issue of sea level rise for coastal towns and cities are bringing climate choices to the forefront of public discourse. Please invite friends and neighbors to join the cathedral community for this deliberative dialogue forum. We will discuss Climate Choices by including information about climate impacts on the first coast and communities in and around Jacksonville.

Please RSVP to Tina Hutcheson (thutcheson@jaxcathedral.org) by Sunday, October 23. A hard copy of the issue book will be available the week of October 16 for those who sign up to participate in the forum. Electronic copies are also available. For more information contact Rev. Gregg Kaufman, gkaufman8@mac.com or 904-375-0669.
