Can you help Sulzbacher families move into permanent housing?

The Sulzbacher Center is moving families and individuals into permanent housing so fast, their inventory of furniture just can't keep up! Sulzbacher always helps their residents by providing them with basic items when they move: beds, couches, tables and chairs, kitchen items and more. Do you have any gently used items you could donate to help these folks start a new life? Your support would mean so much. Sulzbacher is proud of their residents and families who have worked so hard to get back on their feet. With your help, they will also be able to create comfortable homes for themselves and their families. To arrange a time for a pick-up or delivery of furniture, please call Tricia Gravatt at 394-8082. The need is great. Please call today!
Pick-ups are limited to Duval County.

Donate to our flower fund for altar flowers

Go to www.jaxcathedral.org, hover over the "Give" tab at the top of the page, then scroll down and click "Donate altar flowers," and you can fill out our flower donation form with your preferences. Thank you so much for your generous donations!

To all who enter here—to those who are weary and need rest,

"Unshackling Shame": A Special Retreat Coming Soon

What do canoes, silence, volleyball, prayer, hiking, worship and play have in common? These describe some elements of a special spirituality retreat at Camp Weed to be held September 8-11. The retreat is an ecumenical offering open to all.

Beginning the first day, Thursday, September 8, (registration is at 3 p.m.) the retreat kicks off around a music and wine mixer followed by a generous dinner buffet. After the buffet, Dean Kate Moorehead will offer the first presentation for the retreat. This talk will commence the retreat's theme, "Unshackling Shame: The Intersection of Spiritual and Mental Health."

The next day includes two more presentations (morning and afternoon) with feedback and group discussions. Communal and individual activities will be offered throughout the day. We will close out the night with a time for playful fun after the buffet dinner.

The third day offers practices that embrace the focus on the intersection of spiritual and mental health. Some workshops will also be available for those with special or shared interests. The evening will offer a wine and jazz occasion.

Following our breakfast buffet the next morning, we will join our spirits in stunning Mandi's Chapel. Eucharist will be shared as we bless God and one another into our lives of love and service.

To register, please visit the following website: http://allianceofbaptists.org/NewsAndEvents/event_detail/1033

For more information, please contact Reverend Dr. Ken Meyers at kenneth@allianceofbaptists.org.

Provide new clothes for kids going back to school

Even though it feels as if summer just began, the first day of school is a little more than a month away, and the Sulzbacher Center is beginning their fundraising efforts now for school clothes for children living at the center and in Sulzbacher's aftercare program.

Sulzbacher's Back to School shopping day is August 12. Won't you help kids start the year feeling good about themselves in their new school clothes? Sulzbacher appreciates any amount you can give.

We know that a child's self-esteem is directly related to academic performance. With your help, every child living at the Sulzbacher Center will have the opportunity to feel great and do well in school this coming year. Thank you so much in advance for making it possible to provide new school clothing for the children at Sulzbacher!

Online donations: Go to www.sulzbachercenter.org to donate online and please designate your gift to "Back to School."

Donations by check: Please note "Back to School" on your check and mail to The Sulzbacher Center, 611 E. Adams Street, Jacksonville, FL 32202
